

The John H. Harland Company provides software and printed products to the financial institution market; and software services and systems for the collection, management and interpretation of data to the educational, financial and commercial markets.

Harland delivers best-of-suite product and service offerings with the highest level of continuity and integration available today. Having achieved its longevity by continually embracing change, innovation and automation every step of the way, today over 40% of financial institutions nationwide use at least one Harland product to power their businesses.

HARLAND

one company. endless solutions.

HARLAND

FINANCIAL SOLUTIONS

Harland Financial Solutions supplies software and services to thousands of financial institutions of all sizes and provides the tools necessary to help maximize profitability and strengthen important relationships.

Pro Suite™

With more than 20 years experience, and more than 3,500 financial institution customers of all sizes, Pro Suite™ has become the leading platform solution for selling and originating new loan and deposit accounts, offering federal and 50-state compliance solutions backed by a million-dollar warranty.

financial.center®

A thin-client, browser-based origination solution that facilitates multi-tasking capabilities, generates compliant documentation and enables centralized administration across the entire network.

Compliance eAcademy™

The Compliance eAcademy™ provides a robust Web-based compliance training solution that increases employee knowledge, provides managers powerful tools for administering successful training programs, and supplies compliance officers with up-to-date access to training reports and results.

INTERLINQ®

INTERLINQ® supports the volume and business models of nearly any mortgage operation. INTERLINQ E3 is a Web-based lending platform with business process management and integration capabilities, enabling lenders to incorporate both best-practice business rules and third-party technologies into their lending processes.

Touché® Customer Relationship Management

The enterprise-wide Touché® Customer Relationship Management solution features Touché Analyzer™, powered by the MaxSell™ MCIF system, designed to provide unprecedented insight into member and customer needs and behaviors; Touché Sales & Service™, designed to handle sales and referral activities as well as problem resolution and service requests; Touché Messenger™, for automated, multi-channel, one-to-one campaign management delivering highly targeted marketing messages to members and customers at every point of contact; and Touché Advisor™, providing consulting, implementation, training and ongoing support.

Encore!® Suite

Encore!® Teller is a robust teller automation product that enhances customer service, increases teller productivity, and reduces costs. Encore! Platform, a relationship building and customer retention solution, provides intelligent tools for delivering customer service information and sales options to customers, speeding account opening, and tracking sales; and Encore! Call Center, providing the ability for call center agents to handle all inbound sales and service activities.

HARLAND

PRINTED PRODUCTS

Core Systems

Featuring the comprehensive ULTRADATA® System for credit unions, delivering scalable and innovative technology solutions that meet the needs of credit unions of all sizes; the SPARAK® System for banks, assisting nationwide institutions become more efficient and productive.

Enterprise Services Center

The Enterprise Services Center delivers data protection, uninterrupted service, and technical expertise in a data center. By deploying multiple measures for system availability and data security, using the latest standard hardware to power systems, the Enterprise Service Center delivers complete data protection and technical support for your business.

Harland Printed Products supplies digital checks and forms for financial institutions, national office supply chains and accounting software companies. Printed Products offers the solutions that ensure satisfaction, exceed expectations and create long-term loyalty.

Harland Business Solutions

Harland Business Solutions offers products and services designed for small businesses including computer checks, vouchers and business forms. A referral program puts these small business customers in direct contact with product experts to help deliver quality products and services securely to their customers.

Harland Direct Marketing

Harland Direct Marketing delivers products and services that range from simple turnkey direct mail programs to complex predictive modeling solutions. This innovative modeling solution, known as the Stratics business intelligence model, assists financial institutions with profitability and retention rates by leveraging statistically derived financial, behavioral, and demographic information to drive strategic decisions.

Harland Commercial Treasury

Harland's Commercial Treasury solutions streamline and centralize internal and external commercial transactions reengineering cash management to increase efficiencies and decrease costs.

Scantron Corporation is a leading provider of software services and systems for the collection, management and interpretation of data to the educational, financial and commercial markets.

Scantron Testing & Assessment

Scantron's education suite of products addresses the complexity of designing and managing the right curriculum and assessing students with effective, technology-based solutions that streamline and simplify the process – for district and school administrators, teachers and students. The solution is comprised of five individual products – Performance Series, Curriculum Designer™, Skills Connection®, ParSYSTEM™, and Classroom Wizard™. These products enable curriculum developers to build a continuum of objectives and share them throughout the district; and for educators to diagnose skills, develop learning strategies, create tests tailored to individuals, measure progress, and report and analyze results.

Scantron Data Capture

Scantron Data Capture offers a complete line of data collection products and services for all aspects of data management. From OMR and image-based data capture tools to software solutions and consulting services, Scantron helps companies get the information they need to make informed, intelligent business decisions. Scantron data capture software includes eListen®, the most advanced electronic technology to survey and collect survey data results; Automated Data Collection Software to replace manual data entry with the automated processing of forms and documents; Form Management Software to put form and document processes online; FLIPS, enabling the production of a variety of customized surveys, tests and data capture documents from a laser printer; Scanbook™, a tool to create form descriptions quickly and easily; and Slugger providing the ability to pre-fill an existing form with data such as ID numbers, names and dates.

Scantron Service Group

Scantron Service Group is a nationwide provider of installation, maintenance and repair service for more than 13,000 customers using Intel-based network personal computers and servers, IBM pSeries, printers, terminals, controllers, proof machines, encoders, check processing machines, data communications equipment and peripherals.

The Power of Harland

- A company that provides complete choices.
- A company that has delivered strength and stability for more than 80 years.
- A partner for all your business needs.

For more information, please visit www.harland.net.